

Many people today are gathering together in God's house with doubt that He has the ability to answer prayer. What is your response, what will be your response today to God's ability? Regardless of what we are going through, what we are facing today God has an answer for it. The question is will we in faith believe that He has an answer or will we continue to live in doubt and fear? The issue is not that He can't; it's that we don't believe He can. The problem isn't with Him it's with us. He has something to say about our situations but do we have an ear to hear? Do we live by faith or feelings? What do you give up to go to the house of God? What have you denied yourself in order to follow Jesus? Luke 9:23-24. It's a daily thing. The North American church is looking for a Christ-less Christianity, they are looking for a Christianity of convenience. Do we ask God what he wants us to do or do we gather together or pray or study when it's convenient for us? We are responsible for the choices we make. Josh. 24:15; Matt. 5:37

It is our choice to feast on God's word, to digest what is given us to eat or we can go hungry; the choice is ours. What will you choose to do? Will you be founded on the Word and press in? Have you made a decision for Christ or is it up for grabs? We are responsible to know God Rom. 10:2. We respond to His ability but He also responds to our ability. When it comes to prayer we have the ability to bow our knee, to ask Him to intervene in our situations. Too often we want to sit back and let God do it all. When God doesn't see any growth in the seed that He has invested He will bring stuff into our lives that will cause growth to come. We understand that in relation to a farmer's crop yet we don't understand it when it comes to God's fields, which are our hearts.

We are responsible for right here, right now Rom. 10:8. We need to stop living in the past and stop living with destination disease. We may never get where we want to go. We need to focus on the present. God is right here right now we need to serve Him now. He wants to meet with you right now. Today is the day. Step out in faith.

Responsible to hear and learn from God's word Rom. 10:17. It's up to us to take the word of God and ask Him to stir up fresh faith in us. We have the ability to go to a CARE Group, do we go? That is our responsiveness to God's ability. Do we believe there is power and edification in the body of Christ? We need to live it out. God is big on the idea of one another. CARE Groups are our opportunity to explode in our relationship with God and each other.

It is our responsibility to develop those relationships. Luke 9:23-24 will revolutionize our lives if we would let it. We need to commit it to memory and then live it out. No more Christ-less Christianity. He paid the debt for us, let's act responsibly to that payment.
